

Dams and like structures.	tain, and operate such lateral and branch lines as may be necessary or advantageous to the extension, completion, and operation of such railroad; and for these purposes it shall have the power to construct dams, culverts, trestles, and bridges over and across streams, valleys, and depressions; and it shall have the right to cross at grade or over or under, to intersect, join, or unite its railway with any other railway now constructed or that may be hereafter constructed in this State, upon the grounds, premises, and rights of way of such other companies at any point on its route, and to build the necessary turnouts, sidings, switches, and other conveniences in furtherance of the objects of its construction; and may, in making any intersection or connection with any other road, have all rights, powers, and privileges conferred upon railroads by chapter sixty-one of Revisal of one thousand nine hundred and five, or any act of the General Assembly amendatory thereof. Said company shall also have the right to locate such station or stations along its railroad, and arrange such schedule or schedules for the running of its passenger or freight cars or trains as it may think proper. For the construction of a railway, provided by this act, the company shall have, for the purpose of acquiring lands, easements, or right of way, all the rights, powers, and authority given to railroads under chapter sixty-one of the Revisal of one thousand nine hundred and five of North Carolina, or any act of Assembly amendatory thereof, as fully as if the provisions of said chapter were incorporated in this act.
Crossing other railways.
Turnouts and sidings.
Rights in connecting with or intersecting other roads.
Stations and schedules.
Rights in acquiring lands.	SEC. 3. Said company, its successors or assigns, shall have the exclusive right to carry and transport passengers and freight along said road and its branches, at such rate as said company may prescribe, subject to such general laws regulating the same as the General Assembly may from time to time establish; and it shall have the right to transport all manner of goods, United States mail, or other property, and make and collect charges therefor, and to make, fix, charge, and collect such tolls for the transportation of persons and property as it may think necessary, subject to the general law.
Exclusive right of transportation.
Use of roads and streets.
Power stations.	SEC. 4. Said company shall have the right and authority to use any public road or highway or street for the construction or operation of its railroad, cars, poles, lines, or other equipment, under such reasonable regulations as the authorities controlling said roads, highways, or streets, respectively, shall upon application from the company prescribe. It shall have the right to build, construct, and equip steam- and water-driven electric-power stations for the production of electro-motive force for its own use and for sale to others for power, heating, lighting, and for whatsoever other purposes electric current may be required. It shall have the right to build transmission lines for the distribution of this current through the territory in which it may operate. It shall have the right to install and equip substations as the demands for Transmission lines.
Substations.	